HEALTHSOUTH EAST VALLEY TO HOLD GRAND OPENING
State-of-the-art hospital offers rehabilitation services to Mesa

MESA, Ariz. – Grand opening ceremonies for HealthSouth East Valley Rehabilitation Hospital will be held on Tuesday, Aug. 18, 2009, at 5652 E. Baseline Rd. Hospital tours will begin at 4 p.m. A ribbon cutting ceremony, including comments from Mesa Mayor Scott Smith and HealthSouth President and CEO Jay Grinney, is scheduled for 5 p.m.

“The addition of this hospital will allow us to provide high-quality and cost-effective inpatient and outpatient rehabilitation services to more patients in Mesa and the surrounding communities,” said Timothy Poore, HealthSouth East Valley CEO. The hospital will also create approximately 130 new jobs and is the only free standing rehabilitation hospital in the East valley.

The 47,500-square-foot hospital is HealthSouth’s third rehabilitation hospital in the greater Phoenix area and sixth hospital in Arizona.

HealthSouth East Valley Rehabilitation Hospital is a 40-bed inpatient rehabilitation hospital that provides a higher level of rehabilitative care to patients who are recovering from stroke and other neurological disorders, brain and spinal cord injury, amputations, orthopedic, cardiac and pulmonary conditions. The hospital can be found on the Web at www.healthsoutheastvalley.com.

HealthSouth is the nation’s largest provider of inpatient rehabilitative healthcare services. Operating in 26 states across the country and in Puerto Rico, HealthSouth serves patients through its network of inpatient rehabilitation hospitals, long-term acute care hospitals, outpatient rehabilitation satellites and home health agencies. HealthSouth strives to be the nation’s preeminent provider of inpatient rehabilitative healthcare services and can be found on the Web at www.healthsouth.com
